① Canal Plaza

(Open 9:00 - 18:00 (with seasonal variations). Closed on New Year's Day)

It is a business plaza open inside the "Former Otaru warehouse", the oldest business warehouse in Hokkaido. Here you will find a tourist information center and you can buy souvenirs. The dog statue at the entrance is of a real dog from the Meiji era, whose adventures as a fire department dog were depicted in the picture book "Bunko, the fire dog".

② Kitahama Bridge

A bridge known for the memorable "Girl calling the seagulls" statue. Ships are moored in the vicinity, reminders of old days on the canal. The Hokkai Can Co., Ltd. Otaru plant located between Ryugu Bridge and Kitahama Bridge became the model for Takiji Kobayashi's book "Kojo saibo" ("Plant cells").
